In the name of God, Amen, I John Bellamy of the County of Franklin & State of Georgia, being weak in body, but of perfect mind & memory, thanks be to God, calling into mind the mortality of my Body, & knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make & ordain, this my last will & Testament; that is to say, principally & first of all, I give & recommend my Soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it, and my Body to the Earth, to be buried in decent Christian Burial, at the direction of my Executors; nothing doubting but at the General resurrection, I shall receive it again by the mighty power of God.

And as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God, to bless me with, I give & dispose of in the following manner, (to wit) first I give & bequeath to my beloved wife Lucy Bellamy four Negroes (to wit) Jack, Jim, Tilda, & Suddah, the plantation whereon I now live, together with my stock of all kinds, plantation tools, household & kitchen furniture, during her natural life or widowhood — Secondly I give & Bequeath to my son William Bellamy, one hundred twenty eight & one fourth acre of land whereon he now lives, it being one half of a tract of land belong to me, by on nails creek, joining John Giber & Westbrook, originally granted to John Turmon, also one young negro man named Granville —

Thirdly, I give & bequeath to my son Nicholas Bellamy ten dollars he having had his part heretofore —
Fourthly, I give & bequeath to my son John Bellamy one hundred & fifty acres more or less, it being all that
