

Dear Aunt Sally:-

Will it surprise you to hear, Jim to be married on Thursday evening?

Well 'tis so, on that evening, if nothing happens to prevent, I'll change my name from Erwin to Hairston.

I would be so glad to have you come up then, can't you?
It is to be a very quiet affair, only the near relatives expected.
Aunt are the only one of my aunts invited. I have wanted to let you know before, but we were not fully decided when it would come off, until lately. He will be married at 3 o'clock, and leave immediately after the ceremony for N. O.

Sister and Sister Hallie send love; take a large bundle of it.

From your devoted niece Nettie Eyrin.
