

December, 5th 1771.

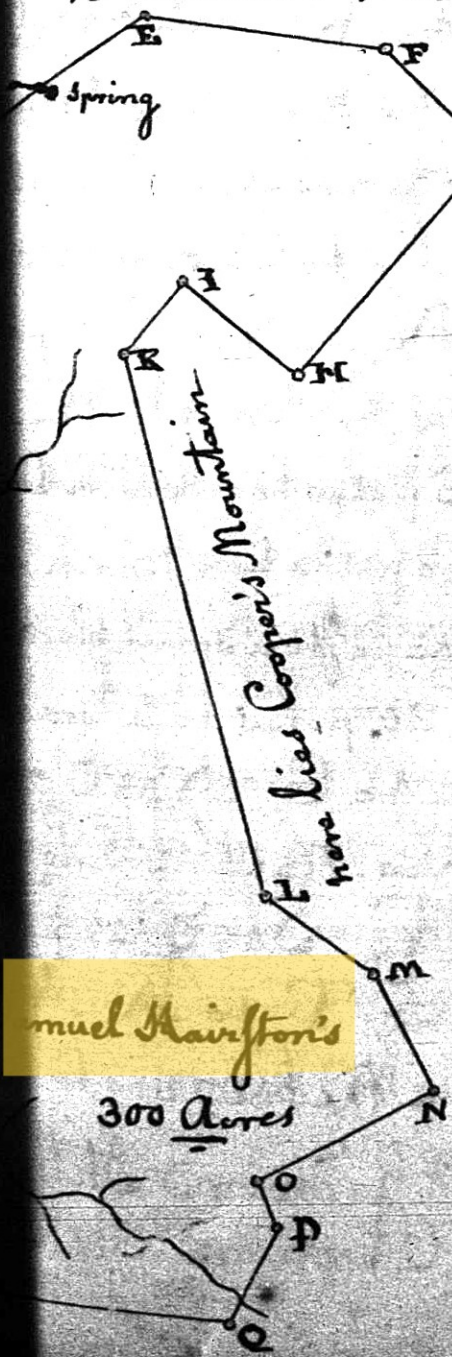

Surveyed for Joseph Anthony 100 Acres of Land situate in Bedford County on head Branches of Beaver Creek, and Bounded as followeth, viz, Beginning at Read's corner white Oak, at A: thence off, from, A to B, N-, 102 poles to a Red Oak: B to C, N55W, 22 poles to a large white Oak on Clement's ^{Sine}: thence along his Lines, C to D, S65W, 122 poles to his corner Pointers: D to E, N80W, 42 poles to his corner Gum on his own Line: thence along his own Lines, E to F, S12E, 40 poles to his Corner Pointers on the main Branch: F to G, S73E, 102 poles to his and Read's Corner Black Jack: thence along Read's Lines, G to H, N83E, 18 poles to his corner small Red Oak: H to I, N32E, 32 poles to his corner Pine: I to A, S68E, 76 poles to the first Station

By Richard Stith Surveyor

March, 31, 1772

Surveyed for Samuel Mairiston 300 Acres of Land situate in Bedford County on Branches of Beaver Creek: and Bounded as followeth, viz, Beginning at Brown's and Lynch's dividing Corner Pointers; thence along Brown's Lines, from, A to B, S45W, 92 poles to his corner Black Jack: B to C, S65W, 36 poles to his corner Red Oak: thence off, C to D, S52W, 11 poles to a small Red Oak: D to E, N72W, 102 poles to a small Red Oak: E to F, N30W, 78 poles to a Pine: F to G, N10E, 28 poles to Pointers: G to H, E-, 96 poles to a Pine on the west side of Cooper's Mountain: H to I, S-, 28 poles to a shrub white Oak in a point of Rocks, at the South end of the said Mountain: I to K, E-, 32 poles to a Pine: K to L, N37E, 118 poles to a Chestnut: L to M, N-, 30 poles to a Black Jack: M to N, N25E, 22 poles to a Pine: N to O, S70E, 62 poles to a Pine: O to P, N30E, 17 poles to a Pine: P to Q, N75E, 36 poles to a Black Oak: Q to R, S38E, 130 poles to Pointers on Lynch's Line: thence along his Lines, R to S, S65W, 130 poles to his corner Pine: and S to A, S45W, 120 poles to the first Station

By Richard Stith Surveyor