

Thomas Jefferson

Samuel Hairstone
300 Acres - Examined

This Grant was made out when Thomas Jefferson was Governor and was on this very day, therefore it is A. C. to be allowed in full name of Dr. Brinson

Dr. Brinson Esquire Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, to all to whom these Presents shall come Greeting: Know ye that in consideration of the Ancient Composition of thirty shillings Sterling paid by Samuel Hairstone into the Treasury of this Commonwealth there is granted by the said Commonwealth unto the said Samuel Hairstone a certain tract or parcel of land containing three hundred Acres by survey bearing date the thirty first day of March, One thousand seven hundred and seventy two, lying and being in the County of Bedford - on branches of Beaver Creek; and bounded as followeth to wit Beginning at Brown's and Lynch's adjoining corner pointers thence along Browns Lines South forty four degrees West. Ninety two poles to his corner black Jack: South sixty five degrees West thirty six poles to his corner Red Oak: thence off South fifty two degrees West, Eleven poles to a small red Oak: North seventy two degrees West, One hundred and two poles to a small red Oak: North thirty degrees West seventy eight poles to a pine: North ten degrees East forty eight poles to pointers; East ninety six poles to a pine on the west side of Cooper Mountain; South forty eight poles to a shrub white Oak in a point of Rocks on the South end of the said Mountain: East thirty two poles to a pine. North thirty seven degrees East, one hundred and eighteen poles to a chestnut; North thirty poles to a black Jack

283
 North twenty five degrees East, forty four poles to a pine on the East side of the said Mountain: South five degrees East, sixty four poles to a pine: North thirty degrees East, seventeen poles to a pine North seventy five degrees East thirty six poles to a black Oak: South thirty eight degrees East, One hundred and thirty poles to Pointers on Synch's Line: thence along his Lines South sixty five degrees West, One hundred and thirty poles to his corner pine and South forty five degrees West, One hundred and twenty poles to the first Station with its Appurtenances; to have and to hold the said Tract or parcel of Land, with its Appurtenances, to the said Samuel Hairstone and his Heirs forever. In Witnes whereof the said Benjamin Harrison Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia, hath hereunto set his hand, and caused the Lesser Seal of the said Commonwealth to be affixed at Richmond on the first day of September in the year of our Lord One Thousand seven hundred and eighty <sup>two</sup> and of the Commonwealth the fifth

Thomas Jefferson