We the ? appointed by the worshipful Court of Campbell at their November Term 1803 to settle the account current of the Estate of Samuel Hairston deceased with the executor and to divide and allot the Estate amount the Legatees. Report that we have carefully examined and compared the vouchers with the different charges exhibited in the account and find both from the information the Executor and vouchers provided that the account is just and right in balance appearing in favor of the Estate of three hundred and sixty three pounds thirteen shillings and five pence which included the interest on the four hundred pounds for which the 860 acres of the brick house land sold.

The interest on one hundred pounds of which is estimated 16 December 1803 as appears by the account also includes the interest on two bonds due to the Estate in 1782, one for thirteen pounds and one for nine pounds which bonds are now in the hand of the Executor. Also includes four pounds seven shillings and eleven pence which sum Samuel Phillips and Jane Jackson late Jane Phillips have received more than their just portion and are dividing and allotting the

The Estate among the legatees agreeable to the decree and their testers last will and testament find their respective net proportions to stand after deducting from each what we decree fair proportions of the expenses as follows; viz To George, Peter and Samuel Hairston the sum of one hundred and thirty three pounds & three shillings and seven pence each, in all three hundred and ninety nine pounds ten shillings and nine pence and it appearing the have received of the Executor the sum of sixty six pounds thirteen shillings and four pence each in all two hundred pounds leaving a balance now due them of sixty six pounds ten shillings and three pence each, in all one hundred and ninety nine pounds ten shillings and nine pence.

To David Moore and Pricilla his wife late Pricilla Hairston the sum of sixty four pounds fourteen shillings and two pence half penny including the boy Davie which said boy they have received agreeable to the will came equinity the balance now are theirs is thirty four pounds fourteen shillings and two pence half penny.

To Margaret Hairston the sum of sixty four pounds fourteen shillings and two pence half penny and to Sally Hairston infant daughter Susanna the sum of sixty four pounds fourteen shillings and two pence half penny making in all now due the said David, Margaret and Sally the sum of one hundred and sixty four pounds and two shillings and eight pence.

To Samuel Phillips and Jane Jackson late Jane Phillips the sum of one hundred and ninety seven pounds seventeen shillings and eleven pence and it appears they have received the sum of two hundred and two pounds five shillings and three pence which is four pounds seven shillings and eleven pence more than their due. We also deem in one up any to rework that from information of the Executor there is a suit or suits yet despairing and undetermined all which is respectfully submitted given under our hands this 7 day of June 1814.
