Cons. for Stating 6 Separate accounts & report $18.00

In Henry County Court April Term 1863.

The foregoing accounts current of Geo. Parnell Guard for John O. Hairston; Children having been returned and examined in the Clerks Office for one month and no exceptions being filed thereto, the same were examined by the Court. The report confirmed and ordered to be recorded.

Wm. J. Griggs Clk

Aware of the uncertainty of life & the certainty of death I Geo. I. Hairston of the County of Henry State of Va. make this my last Will & Testament. I give to Dan Geo my watch excluding him from any interest in my estate and requiring him to surrender all claims in his grand father Martin's Estate to his sisters, in consideration that he is amply provided for by his grand father Hairston.

I give to son Nicholas my Marrowbone tract of land including that purchased of J. T. Beawell, with twelve working hands & their increase, My black Smith Tom & his family to be included; also the stock of every description belonging to said farm, farming utensils &c. In consideration of which, he is to surrender his interest in his grand father Martin's Estate.

The balance of my property to be equally divided between my daughters Sally Lou, Susan Jane, Betty M.
& Matilda Hairston. Each child shall have the privilege of making my residence their home so long as single, I appoint my daughters Sally & Susan & son Geo to manage my estate as they may think proper and that security shall not be required of them. In testimony whereof I here assign my name & affix my seal this 11th of December 1862

Geo. I. Hairston (Seal)

In Henry County Court June 8th 1863. The foregoing writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of George I. Hairston dec'd was produced in Court and Peter M. Watkins and George Hairston being duly sworn, in open Court testify that they are well acquainted with the hand writing Testator and that they verily believe the said writing and the signature thereto to be wholly Testator's own hand writing; Whereupon it is ordered that said Writing be recorded as the true last will and Testament of the said George I. Hairston dec'd. And on the motion
