

FINK, Lloyd E., 82, went home to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and to be reunited with his wife, Betty on October 26, 2002. Lloyd is survived by his daughter, Joy Marin; sons, John (Linda), Mark (Karen); eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Lloyd was a native Arizonan and moved to Tucson at a very young age. He graduated from Tucson High School. He worked as a railroad engineer until 1959. After that he was an insurance agent, worked for Jim Click Ford and Arizona Sash and Door. One of the most amazing things he did was decide to go to Bible college at the age of 79. He graduated from Rhema Bible College two years later. Since graduation, he has been doing what he loved the most, ministering to and sharing his faith with anyone he met. A "Celebration of Life" service will be held on Monday, November 4, 2002 at 3:00 p.m. at Living Hope Family Church, 8787 E. Broadway (east of Camino Seco, northside of Broadway). Remembrances may be made to Prison Fellowship Ministries, P.O. Box 34127, Phoenix, AZ 85067.
