Teste John May 6th 1776

The Nuncupative Will of William Rowland dec. taken on the Oaths of James Rowland John Potts sen: & John Potts jun: on Nov^r the 4th of November 1776 being the third Day after his Decease The Deponents being severally examined agree and say that three Days before William Rowland departed this Life James Rowland and John Potts sen: asked of William if he would not make a Will and regulate his Affairs William answered it was his Desire James asked him in what Manner he would make it William answered that he would give every Child he has an equal Part James said it may be you have some Objections viz to have some more than others perhaps you intend to leave your Land to your Boys and an equal Share of your Moveable Estate to which said William made no Answer but turned his Head from them They say further that they the Deponents twice put the same Question to said William during his last Sickness and received from him the same Answer and that to the best of their Knowledge he was at that Time in the proper Use of his Reason They further say that they have often in his Lifetime & when he was in perfect Health heard him say that it was fit that Children alike near should fare alike and that if ever he would make a Will it should be in that Manner and not that one ^{son} should possess the whole of his Land and further say not Taken before me the Day & Year above written
